

Mifflin County Adult Treatment Court – The Mifflin County Adult Treatment Court will accept individuals as a post plea program. Eligible post plea offenders will include offenders whose probation supervision is revoked or have received a County Intermediate Punishment Sentence. In addition to being a resident of Mifflin County, the offender must agree to placement in the specialty program. Eligible offenses include drug and alcohol related criminal offenses and property crimes. Offenders with a prior conviction or current offense involving a felony crime of violence are not eligible. Applicants must meet PCPC-2 diagnostic criteria for substance abuse dependency. The program is extremely intense, and consists of 4 phases. Ideally participants should complete the program in 12 months.
