

Community Service Work Program – Mifflin County Probation and Parole has sole responsibility for all court ordered community service hours. Coordination has been established with local non-profit agencies for placement. Individual placement is based on various criteria such as; proximity to worksite to help alleviate transportation issues, individual skill level, and appropriateness of placement based on individual's offense.